

World War II: America Enters the War

I. Lend-Lease Act

America remains:

However, FDR passes the _____, which will:

FDR calls America the _____.

II. Pearl Harbor

U.S. relations with Japan grew _____. Japan felt war was _____, and already had signed the _____ with Germany and Italy.

Attack on Pearl Harbor:

Tora! Tora! Tora!:

Total casualties were:

U.S. reaction was:

Who declared war on who, and when?

America sends troops to:

But won't fight in Europe yet because:

III. Operation Torch

Operation Torch was:

US General _____ took on German General _____, also known as:

The outcome is:

IV. Meanwhile, in the Pacific...

The Battles of Coral Sea and Midway occur:

The Battle of Coral Sea was a_____.

The Battle of Midway happened when:

The Battle of Midway is very important for the allies because:

V. Stalingrad

Stalingrad very important to Russia because:

*

*

Stalin ordered:

German's win at first, the Soviets push back and eventually_____.

Fighting becomes literally_____. The most common tool used was the:

A popular German quote was:

VI. The Italian Campaign

Invasion of:

Mussolini:

Allies:

VII. Operation Overlord

Also called _____ or _____.

Happened on:

Largest seaborne invasion in recorded history:

The Allied objective was:

To do this, the Allies had:

The result:

By August, Allies had _____.

Then the Allies hit a problem. Their problem was:

So they were stretched _____.

VIII. Hitler's Last Desperate Attempt

The Soviets _____

The Allies _____

Hitler's _____ was coming true, which was:

Hitler needed to:

But his problem is that:

So Hitler decides to:

Why?

Battle of Ardennes, also known as _____.

Date:

Allies are _____.

Some German tactics during this offensive were:

The Malmedy Massacre:

An important battle during the Bulge was the Battle of _____ where:

The result of the Battle of the Bulge: